

REPORT OF THE ANNUAL MEET 2022

Nabon Women's Synod College celebrated its 26th Annual Meet on the 30th September 2022. On this day the College launched its own website, felicitated three well-wishers for their remarkable contribution towards the College, released the Annual College Magazine "The Pioneer2022" and at the same time celebrated the closing of the week long Annual Meet 2022.

The programme started with dedication and thanksgiving by Smt. T. Malngiang, HoD; Khasi Department. This was followed by a welcome address by Smt. I. Kharshiing, Education Department which was then followed by a welcome song "How Great Thou Art" led by Smt. H. Wanniang, HoD, Education Department along with the students of the College.

The Principal of the College, Smt. E. C. Blah delivered a speech acknowledging the valuable services rendered by the three well-wishers of the College namely, Shri. M. Nongphud in creating and designing the College Website, Tbn. D. M. Lartang for composing the music score and tune for the College Anthem and Shri. Bhabok Laloo for assisting the College in meeting prominent Government officials as well as the media fraternity in covering the various programmes of the College. Principal, Smt. E. C. Blah also spoke about the importance of a website for effective communication and further reiterated that the goal of the College website is to provide the visitors a user friendly experience with an easier way to know about the College and also to allow visitors to browse all necessary information about the College. She also lauded and appreciated the Editorial Board for taking the initiative in bringing out the Annual Magazine "The Pioneer 2022". Furthermore, she also shared with the audience that students not only excel in academics but also in various games and challenging contest in different fields. She stressed that though academics are important yet students should know how to strike a balance between academics and extra-curricular activities.

The Annual College magazine "The Pioneer 2022" was released by Rev. P. Hynniewta, President, Governing Body of the College which portrayed the potential literary and artistic skills of the students and at the same time enhanced their knowledge, creativity and imagination.

After the release of the Annual College Magazine, a beautiful rendition of the song "Thank God I am free" captivated the audience.

To mark the 26th Annual Meet, three well wishers Shri. M. Nongphud, Tbn. D. M. Lartang and Shri. Bhabok Laloo were felicitated by the Principal Smt. E. C. Blah with gifts, mementos and certificates of appreciation.

This was followed by a cultural programme performed by the NSS Unit, Nabon Women's Synod College who enthralled the audience with their Shad Pliang or Plate Dance.

Further, the day was an extremely proud moment for the College as Nabon Women's Synod College Website www.nabonwomensynodcollege.in was officially launched by the Chief Guest Shri. Ransom Sutnga.

Shri. Ransom Sutnga in his address lauded and applauded the College for launching its own website in order to boost and foster improved communication. At the same time he pointed out that the website will be a blessing to visitors as well as the faculty and students to get access to necessary information and activities of the College. He also reminded the audience about Christian values and stressed on the Biblical verse "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom". He further pointed out that the College will need to mobilise more well-wishers for the betterment and upliftment of the College. At the same time, he gave his assurance to help the College in getting schemes from different Companies and even promised to work together with the College Management to take this initiative in improving the infrastructure.

Finally, the Annual Meet 2022 was concluded with the vote of thanks delivered by Miss C. C. L. Thabah, HoD, Economics Department and the singing of the College Anthem followed by prayer and benediction by Rev. P. Hynniewta, President, Governing Body of the College.
